HOW TO PRINT YOUR OWN PICK ME UP GAME

DOWNLOAD THIS PDF

Congratulations, you did the hardest part. Now, print it out at home or at any print shop. A regular home printer works just fine.

PRINT THE CARDS

The cards are black and white so you don't have to worry about using up all your ink. You can use plain old white printer paper or heavier card stock.

CUT THE CARDS OUT

Cut the cards along the lines provided. It's way easier if you have a paper cutter but who has a paper cutter?

YOU'RE ALL DONE!

Sort the cards into two piles - scenario cards and pickup line cards. They're marked in the lower right hand corner. Now, you're ready to play!

GAME RULES

BASIC RULES

1 THE “HOT DATE” PLAYS A SCENARIO CARD

Each round, one player, called the "Hot Date" draws a scenario card from the stack of scenario cards and reads it aloud to the group.

2 THE “SUITORS” PLAY A PICKUP LINE CARD

Everyone else, called "Suitors" is dealt 5 or more pickup line cards, chooses the best card for that scenario and delivers it aloud to the Hot Date.

3 THE “HOT DATE” CHOOSES THE WINNER

The Hot Date chooses the best pick up line and awards the scenario card to the winner. The next Hot Date reads a scenario and repeats.

4 TO WIN, COLLECT 3 SCENARIO CARDS

The first person to win three rounds wins the game, is named the Queen or King of Rizz, and all must bow to their glory. Expert level: try talking to someone in real life.

TIPS TO MAKE IT MORE FUN

CONSENT AND SAFETY

Creating and maintaining a sense of safety for everyone is essential. Understand consent, respect boundaries & flirt appropriately. Learn more: pickmeupgame.com/pages/consent

PUT YOUR OWN SPIN ON EVERY CARD

Feel free to customize any card to fit the scenario. Or, use the pickup line cards as inspiration to create your own custom line. Play the player, not the card.

ACT IT OUT

You’ll see that some of the cards in the deck have some words in [brackets]. Those are action cards. Act them out while you deliver your line.

STAY IN CHARACTER

Look, we know you would never say these things in real life. But this isn’t real life. It’s a character. It’s a role. Lean into it and you’ll have more fun.

GAME SETUP

Separate the cards into two piles - scenario cards and pickup line cards. Deal each player 5 pickup line cards. Elect one person to be the Hot Date in the first round - whoever has had the longest dry spell, the player with the least Rizz, etc. Each round, the Hot Date shifts one person to the left. Each time you play a pickup line card, draw a new one from the deck. Play until you run out of cards or shuffle up and play again.
